The jury in the case of Herbert Cobb, indicted for the murder of Miss Ella Cravens, was completed Thursday morning and the taking of evidence was begun.

Mrs. Essie Hale, sister of the deceased, was the first witness and told how Cobb came to the house saying he had had trouble with a young man and was going away and had come to say goodbye. She left Miss Cravens and Cobb together and went up stairs to her room, directly over the parlor. She had been asleep and was awakened by her sister Edith screaming in her room. They rushed down stairs and found Miss Ella lying on the floor. She never spoke. Did not see Cobb until she visited him in jail the next day when he told her Miss Cravens said: "Herbert, I had just as soon be dead as living, hadn't you." He said he answered "yes", and she asked if he had a gun. He said he drew his gun and shot her and had one shot left, which he fired at himself. She said Cobb frequently visited her sister who had been engaged to him, but they had broken off on account of Cobb's drinking.

Mrs. Augusta Faulkner, mother of Miss Cravens, testified briefly. She did not hear the shooting or any of the trouble.

Miss Edith Cravens, aged 16, was the principal witness. She said she had gone to bed in the room over the parlor, occupied by Mrs. Hale also, and heard Miss Ella give an awful scream. This was followed by a shot and another scream. She jumped out of bed and started down stairs, screaming as she went, and before she got far, there were three more shots and then she heard the door slam.

She ran into the parlor and found her sister on her knees before a large rocking chair holding to the arm of the chair, her head hanging down. She ran to her and laid her down on the floor, but she was never able to speak. She did not see Cobb at all after coming down stairs.

Malcolm Fears and Buck Marquess testified of having heard Cobb make threats to kill his "sweetheart."

Two negroes employed at Morris' stable said they heard him say when he started that he was going out to "settle something." One of the negroes said he refused to go with him. One had gotten him some whiskey and he was under the influence of drink. This closed the evidence for the Commonwealth.

In the afternoon Cobb went on the stand for himself and told about the same story he had told Mrs. Hale. He entered a plea of not guilty as charged, but admitted the killing. Said he had called to say goodbye, that Miss Cravens had told him to Klein's store that it would be all right for him to come out later in the night and say goodbye. The girl had told him that she had rather die than be separated from him and

CHARLES PETRIE

Has Gone to Washington for a Re-examination.

Some trouble has arisen in the physical examination of Charles Petrie, who passed the mental examination for admission to the Naval Academy June 23. His father, Dr. W. S. Petrie, was advised July 6 that he had been ordered to Washington for re-examination by the surgeon general. The nature of the trouble is not known, but it is evidently of a minor character, or there would be no second examination. The young man's friends are hoping that he will come out all right.

ELECTION WAS ORDERLY.

Attracted Attention Far and Near and Hundreds Took Part.

The Result

Wet..... 154
Dry..... 123
Majority..... 31

The election held at Gracey July 6 on local option resulted in a decisive majority of 31 votes for the wet side.

There are two saloons in Gracey, the only ones in the county outside of Hopkinsville. They are the "Last chance" for Trigg and Caldwell counties and for this reason those counties took an active part in the contest to close them. The district contains 280 voters, evenly divided as to color and under normal conditions about 40 Republican. As nearly as the secret vote can be analyzed it stood Prohibition 100 whites, 23 colored; Anti-prohibition, 40 whites 114 colored. The election was held in the school house and both sides admit that it was fairly conducted. Gipp Watkins and Parish Meacham were Judges, R. E. Cox Sheriff and L. W. Watkins Clerk.

The dry side was supported by a great crowd of ladies from Hopkinsville, Cadiz, Cerulean, Lafayette, Newstead and other places. The organization was headed by Revs. Gregston, Petty, Hunter, Farland, Lyon and Hyde. Prayers were made in the streets, songs were sung and little children carried banners appealing for votes. It is estimated that 500 women and children were in the fight in one way or another.

The wet side relied upon the solidity of the colored vote. A meeting was held Wednesday night and the organization was made so complete that the colored vote was practically polled in a body by 11 o'clock. A check system was kept up and while the dries realized their defeat, the fight was kept up till the close.

Some friction was caused when a band employed by the wets was stationed near enough to the religious services to drown the music and prayers with the noise of drums and cornets. This, however, was not kept up. Early in the day some negroes asked to have their ballots prepared for them, claiming they did not know how to vote. This was objected to as an effort to vote an open ballot for obvious reasons and was not allowed.

The challengers were W. H. Hammonds for the wets and Love Cropp, col., for the dries.

Few Brides.

Now that June is gone, the marriage market is sluggish. There have been no weddings in the last few days in Christian county and few in the country at large. June was a record-breaker as a month of wedding, and now the pendulum swings back to the other extreme and we have but few marriages. Every month has some event associated with it. Just as November and the turkey, February and Washington, July and the Fourth are associated together, so is June associated with weddings.

HOT FIGHT EXPECTED

Between Franks and O'Rear
Forces For This County.

MASS CONVENTION 1 P. M.

Leaders Lining Up For a Struggle For the Delegation.

Our friends, the enemy, are in a hot fight for the control of the delegation to the Republican convention next week. Although Franks is supposed to be entitled to his own district, O'Rear is making a fight for Christian county, his forces being led by C. R. Clark, Jno P. Prowse, W. T. Fowler, O. Davis, W. R. Brumfield and others. The Franks men are led by Chairman V. M. Williamson, John M. Renshaw, J. T. Walker, most of the Law and Order Republicans and such colored leaders as Peter Postell, Ned Turner and others. In fact the entire colored vote is said to be for Franks on account of Judge O'Rear's decision against Berea College.

The Franks men are very confident, but admit that there will be a hot fight. The convention is expected to be a hummer. It will be called to order at the court house by Chairman Williamson, at 1 o'clock.

He is survived by a wife and seven children, Sam, Arch, Fate, Lucian, Annie, Manthis and Sesty.

THE Administration of Estates!

There is no more sacred duty that can devolve upon man, than the custody of money not his own. When, by reason of ill health or old age, men find it impossible to properly manage their valuable interests, and thereby to protect those whom they must leave behind them, it becomes necessary for them to seek another, who, representing them, can safely be entrusted with their property, and who will conscientiously inspect their wishes and anxieties.

to be credited to the great heat serious a showing as is remembered

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

Isn't it sound business reasoning that says every garment should be sold the season for which it is made. We are planning big things for next fall and winter and we are not going to be hampered by what we now have. Prices are plain facts but it's hard to carry quality on paper. Every garment is marked in plain figures, so no chance for you to make a mistake by buying these Hirsh Wickwire and Clothcraft Clothes that need no recommendation.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; this has been established between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

DYING ON HER KNEES.

that they would die together and he shot her four times and reserved one shot for himself.

Cobb's only purpose seemed to be to fix up some sort of a plea to save his life. His attorneys had proposed that he would enter a plea of guilty and take a life sentence, but the girl's mother would not consent to an agreed case, but said she wanted the law to take its course. Cobb's story left him without even the plea of insanity and was a confession of deliberate murder.

Yesterday morning a boy named Garnett Cravens who heard the conversation at Klien's was put on the stand and denied that Miss Cravens had told Cobb it would be all right for him to come out, two miles from town, and tell her goodbye, after 12 o'clock. The boy would have told that Cobb had asked her if she was going to see another boy Sunday and she said yes, that she had a right to see any one she chose to, and that Cobb had said "you won't do it." This was held to be inadmissible.

O. H. Anderson, John C. Duffy, C. H. Bush and Denny P. Smith argued the case in the order named and the jury took it yesterday afternoon. A large crowd heard the speeches.

SANER FOURTH COSTS LIVES

Total Deaths Due to Celebration Thirty-eight.

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—Revised figures on the number of deaths and injuries in the United States yesterday indicate that the celebration of 1911 advanced a safer method of observing the Fourth of July. Thirty eight lives are sacrificed and 1,217 were injured as compared with forty-four killed and 2,485 injured last year and sixty-two killed and 3,346 injured in 1909. Fireworks claimed eighteen victims, firearms twelve, gun powder five and toy pistols three.

One of Many.

Louisville, Ky., July 4.—As a result on a Fourth of July celebration in which bullets were used instead of blank cartridges, Clementina Von Almen, aged 22 years, is at a local hospital tonight suffering from a fatal wound received while sitting in the front yard of her home, a block from the scene of the shooting.

The couple afterward attended the Red Men's picnic at the Fair Grounds and were awarded a prize for being the most recently married couple present. The bride also captured the prizes offered for being the youngest and lightest married woman at the picnic.

For if the prescription he gives you is not filled in the right way by the use of fresh drugs and careful compounding, all his ability cannot aid you. Bring your prescription to a pharmacy where not only the highest skill is used but where we pride ourselves, as professional men, on the purity and freshness of our drugs.

STATE FAIR CLUBS IN EACH OF 119 COUNTIES

"BOOSTERS" WILL BE MARSHALLED IN IMPOSING ARRAY IN EVERY DIRECTION.

Kentucky State Fair clubs in every county in the state are promised long before the gates open for the big annual exhibition on the magnificent fair grounds which are the property of the people of Kentucky. These Kentucky State Fair clubs will be organized in connection with the county meetings of the Farmers' Institutes. The members of each of these clubs are expected to become "boosters" and will have as their slogan, "I'll be there; will you?"

The forming of these state fair clubs alone is expected to mean a big increase in the attendance at the fair from each of the counties of Kentucky.

In addition, the fiscal court in each of the Kentucky counties will be asked to make an appropriation of $100 for a county display. There is not a county in the Commonwealth but which has one or more products of which it is justly proud and it is these products which the respective appropriations will pay for displaying. Therefore, it not only will be state pride which will be on trial, but county pride as well. A good natured rivalry will thus result which should send the citizens of the different counties back home prouder than ever of the resources of their respective communities.

Dread of an Operation.

N. Manchester, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place, says, "I suffered female misery of every description. Two doctors attended me, and advised an operation. I lost weight until I weighed only ninety pounds. I dreaded an operation, and instead, began to take Cardui. In a short time, I gained twenty five pounds, and feel as well as I ever did. Cardui, I am sure, saved my life." Cardui is today used in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain and brings back strength and ambition. It is a woman's medicine, for women's ailments, and you are urged to try it for your troubles. Ask your druggist. He will tell you about Cardui.

PERRY'S VICTORY ON ERIE

TO BE DISPLAYED IN FIRE

Triumph of Pyrotechnic Art, Something Absolutely New, Will Be Seen at Kentucky State Fair.

From the amusement standpoint alone, as divorced from the more serious or the educational end, the Kentucky State Fair of 1911 will make a big hit. Amusements of a character which will not give offense, but which still are up to the minute, have been contracted for, and it will be to laugh every minute while the visitors are in the proper section. The marshalling into a band of several big, clumsy elephants is an entirely new and diverting feature from a pleasure standpoint. The Whirling Lunette Sisters will make the average person dizzy in a very few minutes and their gyrations are a wonder.

The combination feature known as the "Loop the Loop" and the "Gap the Gap," one of the most thrilling feats ever attempted anywhere, is certain to draw thousands daily to the scene of this dare-devil ride. The head-on collision between two monster engines, each weighing 240 tons, will provide sensations enough to last a week. The two engines are started towards each other on a track and permitted to crash in front of the grand stand.

Kentucky's Commissioners. The pyrotechnic displays will draw both old and young as if by magic, as the features arranged for this year will be certain to please. In this instance the state fair management has not been sparing of money as it decided that it were better to have none unless it be the best.

Kentuckians should be especially interested in the graphically spectacular display of the Victory on Lake Erie, as Gov. Willson has already appointed commissioners from this state to the centennial celebration in 1912.

Other beautiful and impressive figures shown in fire will be produced nightly by the Pyro-Spectacular Company of Rochester, N. Y., with which concern the contract has been made.

THE MAGAZINES

What's in McClure's.

The leading feature in the July McClure's is "Burton J. Hendricks' article, 'The Initiative and Referendum, and How Oregon Got Them.' The Governmental ideas that now occupy so largely the public mind have been in active operation in Oregon for several years, and in this article Mr. Hendrick shows the practical workings of progressive legislation.

The July Woman's Home Companion.

The July WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION contains the first of a series of articles describing intimately the girlhood of some of our most famous women singers. The first article is on Lillian Nordica. Other artists who are to be included in the series are: Mary Garden, Bessie Abbott, Emmy Destinn and Schumann-Heink.

The July COMPANION contains a number of articles which convey information of value to housekeepers in the summer season. Among these are articles on "How to Cook Summer Vegetables" and "Good Salads for Summer." These articles, in addition to numerous contributions to the fashion, household, home decoration and handicraft departments, make a great collection of useful and interesting reading.

There are ten stories in the number, which are varied and entertaining.

The American Magazine for July

Unusually interesting fiction and strong feature articles contest for pre-eminence in the July number of The American Magazine. There is a story of rare fascination by William J. Locke, an out-of-the-ordinary ghost story by Samuel Hopkins Adams, and a really extraordinary story by Edna Ferber.

Julian Leavitt, in "Something for Nothing," tells how a great manufactory uses the convict labor of five states, thereby saddling an annual expense of $108,000 on the taxpayers.

In "New Ideas in Child Training," H. Addington Bruce tells of a number of youthful prodigies among foremost American families; a boy who learned his alphabet at two, one who wrote plays in Esperanto at nine, a tot of three who operated a typewriter intelligently and a boy who was graduated from college at fourteen.

Hugh Fullerton, in "Between Games," gives an intimate view of the ball player off the field, and Albert Jay Nock in "Why Nature's Way is Best" points out the advantages of raising revenue by taxing only those things that do not encourage industry and development.

The regular departments: "The Interpreter's House," "Interesting People" and "The Pilgrim's Scrip" are, as usual, full of helpful information and interest.

Lippincott's and Vacation.

And now comes the vacation season, when the out-of doors calls to us in tones that will not be denied. Even our reading is done in the open, so far as possible, while as for the kind of reading—well, no involved, problematical fiction need apply, full of action and incident—stories of live people. One such story is the complete novel in the July Lippincott's: "From the Car Behind," by Eleanor M. Ingram, author of those successful books, "The Game and the Candle" and "Stanton Wins." Like her other stories, "From the Car Behind" has to do with motoring, especially motor racing. The love interest is captivating, the action tense, the humor abundant, the mystery long-sustained.

It is the sort of tale one must finish at one reading, for nowhere in it does there seem a place where one is willing to lay it aside. All the characters are intensely human, being neither holy saint nor wholly sinner. In short, the novelette has all the earmarks of a "best seller," and it is pretty sure to take rank as such when it is brought out in book form.

No other games scheduled.

Thursday's Game.

Clarksville 6; Hopkinsville 2.
Cairo 13; Fulton 12.
Harrisburg 9; Paducah 2.
Henderson 6; Vincennes 0.

The Moguls and the Clarksville team returned yesterday from Nashville and played the 11th game. The previous 10 had been equally divided, each team winning 5. Yesterday, McArthur was in the box. To-day, in the last game with Clarksville this half, Beazley will pitch. Beginning Monday with a double header Harrisburg comes for three games. The first game pitched by Yon and the second by Johnson. Tuesday McArthur will work. Henderson comes Wednesday for three games, Beazley, Yon and Johnson pitching in the order named. Yesterday was the 53rd game for Hopkinsville and 10 more games make July 17 the end of the season. All are played here except the 16th and 17th at McLeansboro, where the new season starts with a third game July 18. July 15 is an open date and the season it seems was really intended to close with 60 games on July 14. How about it, Mr. Gosnell? Do we close the 14th or 17th?

The Season's End.

The date for the close of the season is somewhat unsettled. On April 2 Paducah moved and Clarksville suggested the motion to make two series of 60 games each. It was passed by unanimous vote and double headers were afterwards ordered on important days, making the total of games 126. Of those 62 are scheduled at home and 64 on the road for Hopkinsville.

Clarksville 5, Hopkinsville 2.

The game at Nashville Thursday was won by Clarksville 5 to 2, being lost by errors. Johnson and Huhn and Applegate and Horn were the batteries. There were four hits off Johnson and seven off Applegate. The 5 errors—Johnson 2, Zimmerman, Ireland and Summers one each—lost the game. With a man on 1st, Johnson walked two men and timely hits scored the winning runs. On the other hand Clarksville was charged up with some costly errors. The Tennessean says of two of the Moguls:

Ireland, the dumpy little short-stop of the Hoptown bunch, is a corker. He plays ball as though he had been nursed on it. His running mate, Zimmerman at third, is an even more finished performer than Ireland. Zimmerman is a brother of Heine Zimmerman of the Chicago Cubs and bids fair to more than fill the old shoes of his "big bud."

Attendance on the Fourth.

Hopkinsville 740 adults, 185 children; Harrisville 1353 adults, 214 children. About 300 came over to see afternoon game.

The establishment of a network of connecting lines $21,000,000 is to be spent in the construction of narrow gauge railroads.

KITTY MEWS

Binkley is making good with Cairo.

Mike Lyons seems to have found his batting-eye, again—if he ever lost it.

Ireland laid down an ideal bunt in the sixth inning of Wednesday's game.

Our present pitching staff is: Johnson, McArthur, Yon and Beazley. Can it be beaten?

We have our last game with Clarksville here this afternoon. Its up to us to win.

Bailey was released Wednesday, Beazley having arrived. We are sorry to see him go.

Several other clubs in this league have a Ladies' Day. We do not have to have such occasions, as our grandstand is generally well-filled with ladies.

Kahl, one of the umpires, has resigned. Ira Hastings has taken his place. The latter is the former manager of the Harrisburg crew.

Woodring umpired the games at Paducah, Monday. What relation he bears to the Paducah pitcher is not made clear in the reports.

Beazley seems to be good enough to play with us. The trouble up at Terre Haute was that the team was not behind Slat.

It is reported that there is strife in the Paducah aggregation. A team can never win a pennant when its members are quarreling among themselves.

It was reported that Vincennes did not play on the 4th. This is a mistake, as she won both games. The score: Vincennes 4-3, Harrisburg 2-2.

Johnson has pitched 4 one-hit games and 3 two-hit games. Out of 15 games the average was 3.58 hits and he won 11 of them. He has struck out 10 men three times.

The fact that Yon was knocked out of the box in the Clarksville game is a source for comment among the papers on the Kitty circuit.

There was some trouble in the Paducah ranks, and Pres. Gosnell was called upon to settle the dispute. It is reported that the trouble grew out of Manager Lloyd's release.

The Vincennes Capital says that umpire Van Blarcom, a new one, who umpired the Harrisburg series in Vincennes, gave splendid satisfaction and is due a place higher up. Incidentally, it is well to note that Vincennes won all the games of this series.

Yon's hit average in 15 games was 4.5-8 and he won 13 and lost 2. In two games with Cairo and one with Harrisburg he struck out 44 men, his record being 17 in one game. In the opening game he shut out the Clarksville Quitters 5 to 0.

Lefty Carr was so injured in the seventh inning that he will be out of the game the rest of the season. Carr was sliding to second and twisted his leg so that he broke a small bone in his foot. He was carried off the diamond and Binkley put in his place.—Cairo Bulletin.

President Gosnell has found another new umpire named Von Blarcom, who is with Vincennes. The appointment of umpires by one man and he a deeply interested party, bids fair to become a League scandal as it was last season. The announcement was made at the beginning of the season that umpires from outside the League would be named by a committee composed of Vincennes, Harrisburg and Paducah, but Mr. Gosnell appears to have the whole thing back in his own hands again.

Yon, the boasting, babbling, strutting, grinning, ivory topped twirler of the Moguls staff, got just what was due him and what he deserved. His overbearing mannerisms and exaggerated egotism make him the pet aversion of the opposing players and the fans in every town he visits. His everlasting bragging yesterday morning of what he would do to the Clarksville batters that afternoon, roused players and fans alike to the necessity of bringing him to earth with a thud that would be heard all over the circuit. The deed was done to the liking of everybody, but the Hoptown fans and he got a little more of the dose we handed him at Central City, and when he was taken out of the box he had all the earmarks of a whipped mongrel.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

The fact remains that out of 15
